

Citrus Heights Water District Celebrates 100 Years

Kitty O'Neal to Host Virtual Centennial Party

Citrus Heights, Calif. (October 23, 2020) – With it being 2020, Citrus Heights Water District (CHWD) is taking an innovative and creative approach to celebrating its 100 year anniversary with a series of virtual events. The Facebook LIVE event will take place on Wednesday, October 28, 2020 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., Pacific Time. Local Sacramento radio personality Kitty O'Neal will serve as emcee to help mark the occasion, and kick off the next century of the District, which services more than 67,000 residents in the communities of Citrus Heights, Fair Oaks, Orangevale, Carmichael and Roseville.

Madeline Henry, district spokesperson of CHWD says “We hope that our customers, stakeholders and members of the media can take the time to participate in our virtual & interactive celebration.”

O'Neal will co-host along with the CHWD team. We will hear from local elected officials & invited guests including California Senator Jim Nielsen and Assemblymember Kevin Kiley, Congressman Ami Bera, Citrus Heights Mayor, Jeff Slowey, and more.

All CHWD customers who join in and comment will be eligible to win a FREE Smart Irrigation Controller in a raffle drawing. More information including details and discussion boards can be found on the event's Facebook LIVE page.

Centennial webpage link

###

Media inquiries:

Madeline Henry
(916) 207-5432
mhenry@chwd.org